

Philip D. Speicher

Philip D. Speicher is a shareholder with Mathis, Marifian and Richter (MM&R), who focuses his practice in taxation, business law, real estate law and estate planning.

Philip provides legal counsel to a wide variety of clients in matters pertaining to business transactions and tax planning, federal and state tax controversies, corporate mergers and acquisitions, wills and trusts, and estate and gift tax planning. He has considerable experience representing individuals and businesses in IRS audits and in litigation before the United States Tax Court. Philip also provides tax exemption planning services for charitable organizations and other not-for-profit entities. In addition, Philip regularly provides continuing education lectures to fellow attorneys and Certified Public Accountants regarding current developments in federal and state tax laws.

Professional Affiliations

Philip currently serves on the Federal Taxation Council for the Illinois State Bar Association. Philip is also a member of the American Bar Association, The Missouri Bar Association, the Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis, and the St. Clair County Bar Association.

Community Involvement

Philip places a high value on community involvement, and he demonstrates this through his service to various charitable organizations in Southern Illinois and St. Louis. Philip currently serves on the Board of Directors of Ferguson Church of the Nazarene and the School Board for North County Christian School.

Philip D. Speicher
pspeicher@mmrld.com

EDUCATION

Washington University in St. Louis
LL.M. in Taxation 2008
JD 2004

MidAmerica Nazarene University
BA in History 2001

LEGAL SERVICES

Business Law
Real Estate Law
Taxation
Estate Planning

BAR ADMISSIONS

Illinois
Missouri

COURT ADMISSIONS

United States Tax Court