Beth K. Flowers

Beth K. Flowers is a shareholder at Mathis, Marifian & Richter, Ltd. (MM&R) who focuses her practice in estate planning, real estate law and business law.

Beth works with clients in establishing wills and trusts, estate and gift tax planning, trust administration, real estate transactions and corporate and business law. She practices principally in the areas of death and disability planning (wills, trusts, estate and gift taxes, and powers of attorney), probate administration, real estate matters and business entity formation. Beth spends a great deal of her time helping executors and trustees administer estates and trusts during the difficult time after the passing of a loved one in an effort to make the administration process as smooth and uneventful as possible. Beth joined MM&R in 2011 following its merger with Coffey & McCracken Law Firm, where she previously served as an associate.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

Beth is licensed to practice law in Illinois and Missouri. She is a member of the Illinois State Bar Association, The Missouri Bar, Madison County Bar Association and the Estate Planning Council of St. Louis. Since 2007, Beth has presented a lecture each year on “Legal Issues and the Elderly” to the students at SIU School of Dental Medicine. Flowers has also been awarded the title of Leading Lawyer, which is only awarded to the top 5% of lawyers in each state.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Beth is actively involved in the community. She currently serves on the Board of Directors for Faith in Action, Edwardsville chapter. She is also a member of the Land of Goshen Rotary (Madison County) where she has served on the Board of Directors for several years.
